Many of the dishes in this book are cooked as one-pot meals. Others require a simple accompaniment - rice or pasta for instance. Preparation is simple using very little fuel with excellent results.

About the AuthorCatherine is a trained Cordon Bleu cook and holds a BSc (Hons) degree in Home Economics. After graduating, she worked in a number of hotels and restaurants including the Roux Brothers' patisseries. Her catering experience led her to publishing, namely creating recipes and styling food for photography. She became Deputy Cookery Editor for Woman's Weekly and later Me magazine. She currently works as a freelance writer.
