So so book, many bad recipesBy J. L. HarmonI have to say that about half the recipes in this book turn out to be pretty bad. I don't use it anymore for cookies and only rarely for bread. I find the proportions are not good. I do a lot of bread baking and the best recipes are off the internet. I wonder why we even bother with mediocre books like this one.

This heartwarming book contains over 200 delectable recipes for every kind of bake and tempting teatime treat, with all the techniques clearly explained.
