Brian Glover, Stuart Walton : The Illustrated Encyclopedia of Wine, Beer and Spirits before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised The Illustrated Encyclopedia of Wine, Beer and Spirits:

The definitive Reference Guide to Alcohol-based drinks and mixers, and how to choose, store and serve them.

About the AuthorStuart Walton has been writing about alcoholic drinks since the early 1990s. A prolific writer and commentator on wines and spirits, he is currently writing for the London Paper, World of Fine Wine magazine and www.wine-pages.com. He is also the author of The New Encyclopedia of Wine (Lorenz Books) as well as You Heard It Through The Grapevine, Out Of It: A Cultural History of Intoxication, and (with Jeffrey Benson) The Right Wine with the Right Food. Glover's career as a librarian underwent a radical change, after his success in several major cooking competitions, including the very first series of the BBC's Masterchef. He has written about food ever since and now contributes to some of Great Britain's best known home interest and food magazines.
