Excited to use it this holidayBy Amandal am excited to get to use this for Christmas. It was smaller than expected, but it will be okay!0 of 4 people found the following review helpful. NOT A KIT - Ripoff book onlyBy BujiDisclosure: I received this as a Christmas gift, I don't know if it was purchased on or not, but I figured I would come on here and leave a review to deter anyone else getting shafted by this cruddy product.The word "KIT" and the other wording on the outside of the box lead you to believe that this would include at least some of the ingredients to make some of these treats. Instead, there is just a 47 page booklet with 25 recipes and a cookie cutter in the traditional gingerbread man shape. The cookie cutter is nothing you couldn't get for $.20 in the exit isle at the craft store...If you really need a recipe book, then this is fine, but the marketing on this is really misleading as it really isn't a kit.REALLY DISSAPPOINTED!

Special tail-wagging treats for the holidays.The holidays are a time when we want to make special treats for all the special people and dogs in our lives. With the Organic Dog Biscuit Holiday Treats Kit from the Bubba Rose Biscuit Company, it's easy and organic. The recipes in this kit are free of wheat, corn, and soy, but full of yummy and nutritious ingredients like peanut butter, fish, and lean meats. Includes holiday cookie cutters.

About the AuthorThe Bubba Rose Biscuit Company was founded by Jessica Disbrow Talley and her husband, Eric Talley, to provide healthy, preservative-free treats for their dogs and their dogs' friends in Brooklyn, NY.
