book is 10 years old! Maybe I misunderstood "featured" products, but why would such an out of date book be "featured" now? Very disappointed in this purchase, but I did learn that I need to check the copyright date before my next purchase. 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Five Stars By Frederic J. This information-packed guidebook introduces you to more than sixty breweries and brewpubs; from the Shipwrecked Brew Pub in Egg Harbor, to smaller craft breweries like Capital Brewery west of Madison, to the world-famous Miller Brewing Company of Milwaukee. Robin Shepard includes descriptions and his personal ratings of some 600 local beers, plus a tastings chart you can use to record your own preferences. For each brewpub and brewery site you'll find: a description and brief history, plus any "Don't miss" features; names, comments, and ratings for all their specialty beers; notes on the pub food, with recommendations; suggestions of other sites to see and activities in the local area; information about bottling and distribution; availability of tours, tastings, gift shops, mug clubs, and "growlers"; address and contact data, including Web sites and GPS coordinates! Shepard also introduces novices to the brewing process and a wide variety of beer styles. And, you'll find a list of helpful books and Web sites, as well as information on Wisconsin beer tastings and festivals. As we say in Wisconsin, "So, have a couple a two, three beers, hey?"

"Captures the essence of a staggering array of exceptional beers and treats us to the intriguing flavors of the business of brewing. I look forward to pilgrims in search of 'the perfect pint' arriving in New Glarus with tasting cards in hand." — Deb Carey, president of the New Glarus Brewing Company
About the Author Robin Shepard spent three years traveling Wisconsin in search of the perfect pint. Formerly an award-winning journalist, he is Associate Professor of Life Sciences Communication at the University of Wisconsin-Madison.
